In case you decide to follow courses taught in Romanian, you have two possibilities:

1. proving that you are proficient in Romanian by submitting a Romanian Language Proficiency Certificate
2. enrolling for the Preparatory Year of Romanian Language and Civilization available for foreign students at the Faculty of Letters. This means that you will study Romanian language for an entire academic year, before the undergraduate studies.
If you want to attend this course, you have to write in the application form, section II the mentions above: name of the undergraduate course and name of the faculty/Universitatea Babes-Bolyai + preparatory year of Romanian language.

If you don't wish to attend the Preparatory Year, you should chose courses taught in English which are available at almost each faculty.

For a presentation of our academic programmes and their respective language of instruction, please follow this link: <http://www.cci.ubbcluj.ro/student-mobility/files/brosura%2oubb.pdf>.

The academic year starts on the 1st of October, thus enrollment in the University shall be done until that date. However, given the visa issuance problems, the latest deadline accepted for enrollment is the 30th of November.

We wish you lot of success.
